Dwayne,

FedEx reports that it delivered the package to you today. It contains a USB disk with copies of loan files for the loans Benworth identified in the spreadsheet we received from you on May 20, 2024. Can you confirm that you received the USB disk and are able to access the files?

Womply believes it has now transmitted electronic copies of all of Benworth's borrowers' loan files, as required by Arbitrator Brainerd's Final Award dated May 30, 2024 (which was released yesterday). Of course, if you identify any loan files that you believe are missing, please let us know and we will work with you to investigate.

Thank you.

Regards,
Stuart

Dwayne,

It turns out that the files are too voluminous to practically FTP. Womply is putting them on physical media to mail to you as soon as possible. Should we mail it to you at your office address?

Regards,

Stuart

Dwayne,

I hope you had a nice holiday weekend. Womply has gathered the loan files for Benworth's loans. Can we send them to you via FTP? That would be the fastest. If yes, please let us know who we should direct the FTP to.

Thank you.

Regards,

Stuart
